Allons-y & Auf Geht’s to France & Germany

14-Day Teacher-Led Language Immersion Program in France and Germany

Students of the French language and students of the German language unite for this 14-day trip to both France and Germany. Arrive in Paris and spend some time getting to know the “City of Lights”, then check out the Alsatian city of Strasbourg. Students will put their language skills to work while experiencing everyday life with a French or German family. Then the wonders of München und Bayern await: visit a real castle and great museums. Fantastisch!

What Others Are Saying

“It was really rewarding to see my understanding of the language grow throughout the trip. I remember one point specifically in my host family’s kitchen I could understand a conversation almost entirely. It started to feel like my four years of German had paid off.”
